Solemnity of All the Faithful Departed, All Souls

Dear Parent / Carer,

Religious Education: Year 9 Theology of the Body Topic November 2021

Over the next half term, your child will be studying the topic Theology of the Body. Within this topic, pupils will learn about the importance of respect for self and others; consent and why it is important, human dignity and sexuality, the Sacrament of Marriage and the importance of chastity.

It will be based upon the teachings of the Church found in the Catechism and the influence of the teachings from Saint John Paul II. In this topic, pupils will be evaluating and discussing this teaching and will be encouraged to listen and share their views within a safe and respectful classroom environment.

If you have any questions, please contact me via the contact form on the school website.

Yours in Christ
